ASTRA VEDA CORPORATION,

Debtor.

Bankruptcy Case No. 25-14283-KHT

Chapter 7

EX PARTE MOTION FOR ORDER (I) DIRECTING THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND (II) AUTHORIZING EXAMINATIONS OF THE DEBTOR AND JAMES MICHAEL DAVIS PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY
PROCEDURE 2004

Ballistic Barrier Products Inc. (“BBP”), a creditor and party-in-interest, through counsel, respectfully submits this motion (“Motion”) under Section¹ 105(a) of chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), and Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Rule 2004-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the District of Colorado seeking entry of an order (1) directing the Debtor Astra Veda Corporation (the “Debtor”) and the Debtor’s Chief Executive Officer, James Michael Davis, to produce documents, including those listed on Exhibits A-1 and A-2 attached hereto, to counsel for BBP pursuant to a validly issued subpoena, and (2) compelling the Debtor and Mr. Davis to appear for examinations, under oath on a date and time mutually agreed by the parties.

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334.
2. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A).
3. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Debtor's Business Relationship with BBP.

4. BBP was formed in May 2021 for the purpose of manufacturing ballistic products. BBP was formed as a partnership with Rift Management Inc., Egres Enterprises LLC and Penobscot Enterprises, International Inc. ("Penobscot"), each being a partner in BBP.

5. Mr. Davis, the Chief Executive Officer of the Debtor, was the partner representative for Penobscot. In 2023, 2.5 percent of Penobscot's ownership interest in BBP was transferred to the Debtor.

6. Bella Vista Enterprises LLC ("Bella Vista") invested in BBP, as reflected in three Simple Agreements for Future Equity dated May 17, 2021, January 9, 2023, and July 17, 2023 (collectively, the "SAFE Agreements"). Under the SAFE Agreements, Bella Vista agreed to pay its investment money for BBP to the Debtor, solely as a transferring agent for BBP. The SAFE Agreements did not permit the Debtor to retain any investment funds paid by Bella Vista pursuant to this agreement.

7. BBP entered into a services agreement dated April 30, 2021 (but signed in June 2021) with the Debtor (the "Services Agreement"), wherein BBP agreed to pay the Debtor for services rendered by the Debtor. As more fully detailed in the Services Agreement, the Debtor agreed to assist BBP with managing BBP's investment funding (as reflected, in part, by the SAFE Agreements) and assist BBP with managing other of its financial, accounting, and governance tasks. The initial term of the Services Agreement was for one month, and, unless terminated earlier, would continue following the expiration of the initial term for 12 additional months, at which time the agreement would automatically terminate.

8. The Services Agreement terminated in June 2022. The parties attempted to negotiate a new services agreement between BBP and the Debtor, but were unable to agree on compensation terms for the Debtor.

B. The Debtor's Misappropriation of BBP's Funds.

9. In the fall of 2023, BBP discovered the Debtor failed to transfer at least $1,150,000 in investment funds paid by Bella Vista for BBP. Indeed, the Debtor confirmed that Bella Vista paid this investment money for BBP, and the Debtor confirmed that the $1,150,000 was never deposited into BBP's accounts, as it should have been consistent with the SAFE Agreements.

10. BBP also discovered in 2023 that Mr. Davis prepared a service agreement dated May 5, 2021 that was only signed by Mr. Davis, both on behalf of the Debtor and BBP, wherein BBP purportedly agreed that "James M Davis will apportion a minimum of $500,000.00 in funds from [BBP's SAFE Agreements] funds to compensate [the Debtor] for services to be used at his sole discretion." This arrangement was never agreed to by the other partners of BBP, as required, nor were Bella Vista or the other partners of BBP made aware of this agreement until 2023.

11. It is now apparent that the Debtor fraudulently created the May 2021 service agreement to misappropriate and embezzle $1,150,000 of BBP's investment funds for either the Debtor's and/or Mr. Davis's benefit.

C. The Debtor Files this Bankruptcy Case.

12. On July 10, 2025, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Harvey Sender is the duly appointed and acting chapter 7 trustee of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

13. The Debtor did not schedule BBP as a creditor. See generally ECF No. 1. Instead, the Debtor identified an accounts receivable owed by BBP to the Debtor in the amount of $625,451.40. Id. at 8.

14. Mr. Davis is listed as the Debtor's Chairman of the Board and CEO. Id. at 4-5, 25. He signed Official Form 202 Declaration Under Penalty of Perjury for Non-Individual Debtors. Id. at 5.

15. Penobscot is listed as a general unsecured creditor with a claim of $2 million based on a purported loan and deferred compensation. Id. at 14.

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

16. Bankruptcy Rule 2004 allows examinations of any person relating to the "acts, conduct, or property or to the liability and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect that administration of the debtor's estate, or to the debtor's right to discharge." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(b). The scope of examinations under Bankruptcy Rule 2004(b) may include, among other things, any matter which may relate to the property and assets of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate, the financial condition of the Debtor, any matter which may affect the administration of a debtor's estate and any matter relevant to the case. Id. Discovery under Bankruptcy Rule 2004 includes both an examination and the production of documents. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(c).

17. Bankruptcy Rule 2004 "is a basic discovery device used in bankruptcy cases." In re Blinder, Robinson & Co., Inc., 127 B.R. 267, 275 (D. Colo. 1991). This rule permits the party invoking it to undertake a broad inquiry of the examinee. See id. at 274; see also In re Valley Forge Plaza Assocs., 109 B.R. 669, 674 (E.D. Pa. 1990) ("The scope of a [Rule] 2004 examination is even broader than that of discovery permitted under the [Federal Rules of Civil Procedure], which themselves contemplate broad, easy access to discovery.”).

18. Bankruptcy Rule 9016 provides that discovery may be sought under Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. By this Motion, BBP seeks authorization to issue subpoenas duces tecum under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 to the Debtor and Mr. Davis in his individual capacity.

19. Bankruptcy Rule 2004 authorizes and makes appropriate the production of documents and a deposition of the Debtor and the Debtor’s Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Davis. The examination and documents requested by BBP relate to the acts, conduct, assets, and liabilities of the Debtor. The requested examination and documents are necessary for BBP to investigate and evaluate its claim against the Debtor’s estate, transfer of assets to or from the Debtor’s estate, and the conduct of the Debtor and other matters that may affect the administration of the Debtor’s estate. Moreover, the discovery sought by BBP will not unduly burden the Debtor, as it relates only to the acts, conduct, or property of the Debtor or to the liabilities and financial condition of Debtor, which may affect the administration of Debtor’s estate.

20. BBP seeks discovery from Mr. Davis individually in an effort to better understand the Debtor’s financial affairs, including whether any property of the estate may be recoverable for creditors. In the event that the Debtor is not in possession or control of certain records, Mr. Davis should have records that would allow BBP to otherwise substantiate information concerning the Debtor’s financial affairs.

21. BBP seeks to require the Debtor and Mr. Davis to produce documents at a time and place authorized by the applicable rules or at a time mutually agreed to by the parties after they have discussed the scope and magnitude of the documents responsive to the subpoenas, but in no event will the production of documents be required less than fourteen (14) days after service of the Court's order granting this Motion in accordance with L.B.R. 2004-1(b). BBP will arrange for the production of the requested documents electronically consistent with the provisions of applicable law regarding subpoenas duces tecum and Bankruptcy Rule 9016.

IV. CONCLUSION

22. Accordingly, BBP requests that the Court enter an order granting this Motion, authorizing BBP to issue subpoenas duces tecum to the Debtor and Mr. Davis for the production of documents identified in Exhibits A-1 and A-2 and compelling the Debtor and Mr. Davis to appear for Rule 2004 examinations.

Dated September 23, 2025.
